Through New Eyes

Just a reminder of the art exhibit of Exemplary student work sponsored by
The Huntsville Madison Private School Association
Saturday, February 4, 2012 2:00- 4:00pm
Randolph School - Thurber Arts Center
4915 Garth Road

Grace is excited to note that Kiera Esquibel, Preston Heritage, Morgan Riethmaier, Olivia Bumbalough, Cameron Edger, Lauren Presley, Blake Helton, Bryce Johnson, William Spanier, Sabrina Conard, Steven Jamison, Camille Spotswood, Michiko Gibson, and Helen Steeve's art will be on showcase at the third annual art exhibition, "Through New Eyes"

This exhibit represents exemplary artwork being created by students in the Private Schools throughout Huntsville and Madison. It also provides visual evidence of the learning and growth that all of the students are experiencing through engagement in the visual arts. We are grateful to the founder of this show, Marcia Ramsey, and to Greengate School for sponsoring and hosting the show for the past two years. It is our hope that this year's show will again be a showcase of exemplary student work while promoting and supporting quality arts instruction for all of the students in the Private School sector. If you have any questions or concerns please contact Mary Jones at Randolph School by e-mail mjones@randolphschool.net or by phone 256-799-6100 ext.6470 for more information.

SPORTS INFORMATION

Spring sports – It is time to sign up for spring sports. At this time we are planning on offering the following sports for the spring. They are all co-ed.

PK through 1—t-ball; Gr. 2&3—indoor soccer;
Gr. 4 through 8—track.

If your child is interested, fill out the attached flyer and return to Mr. Cypher along with your $50.00 registration fee.

As always we are in need of parents to help coach. Mr. Naatz will be heading up track, but he certainly could use some help. At the present time Mr. Cypher does not have anyone to head up T-Ball or indoor soccer. If you feel you can help with any of these sports, indicate this on the sign-up sheet.

At the present time the practice schedule for these sports has not been set as this is dependent upon when the coaches are available. The season will start in the beginning of February and usually ends around the first week in May.
